Peggy Post to Appear at JimTown Store to Talk with Brides & Children about Manners

Workshops to take place from 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. and 1-2:30 p.m.

HEALDSBURG, CA—Etiquette expert and author Peggy Post will appear at the Jimtown Store in Healdsburg on Sunday, Nov. 13. Peggy will hold a talk and book signing on wedding etiquette from 11 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. and a workshop for children from 1-2:30 p.m. Copies of Post's most recent books, including "EMILY POST'S ETIQUETTE, 17th Edition" (HarperResource, $39.95) will be available for sale. Both events are free and open to the public.

Post has two books for parents and children. The Gift of Good Manners (Collins, $17.95) "THE GIFT OF GOOD MANNERS: A Parent's Guide to Raising Respectful, Kind, Considerate Children," (Collins; $17.95), hailed by Dr. Phil as "belonging in every household in America" and "THE GUIDE TO GOOD MANNERS FOR KIDS," (HarperCollins Children's Books; $15.99), a "how to" etiquette guide for eight to twelve year olds. At Jimtown, Peggy will talk to children about everyday manners and how manners can help you get along with friends, teachers and family members.

Post's philosophy on teaching manners to youth is based on three key concepts: 1) adults can model and teach manners from birth to adolescence; 2) manners education is most effective when geared to a child's normal development; and 3) manners give both children and adults the self-confidence to navigate daily life.

The morning session will focus on weddings, with Post talking to brides, family members and guests about wedding planning and etiquette. The informal session will include questions and answers and a sneak peek at Post's forthcoming book "EMILY POST'S WEDDING ETIQUETTE, 5TH edition" which will be published in January.
