

Peggy Post

Follow @EmilyPostInst

Peggy Post, Emily Post's great-granddaughter-in-law, is a director of The Emily Post Institute and the author of more than a dozen etiquette books. Peggy is co-author of the new 18th edition of Emily Post's Etiquette

Emily Post's Etiquette

. Her other books include the 16th and 17th

editions of

Emily Post's Etiquette

;

Emily Post's Wedding Planner

;

Emily's Everyday Manners

; and

Emily Post's The Gift of Good Manners

.

Since 1995, Peggy has written a popular monthly column in Good Housekeeping magazine.

She also writes a biweekly online column in

The New York Times

called “

The Well-Mannered Wedding

.” Additionally, Peggy conducts lectures and seminars for businesses, trade associations, and community organizations throughout the U.S.

Peggy Post's media appearances include Oprah, Dr. Phil, The View, Live with Regis and Kelly, the show,

Today

Good Morning America, Dateline, VH1

, and

CNN

. Peggy has been interviewed by myriad media outlets including: NPR;

USA Weekend

;

The New York Times; The Wall Street Journal; The Washington Post; Los Angeles Times, The Chicago Tribune, San Francisco Chronicle; The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

and

The Baltimore

Sun. She has conducted spokesperson campaigns for several businesses, including: Master Card; Bed Bath & Beyond; SBC; Merci Chocolate; Yahoo; KFC; Vistaprint; and Florida

Department of Citrus.

Peggy began her career as an international flight attendant for Pan American World Airways. She then taught seventh grade English and history in New York City before entering the business world, developing a 30-year career of management and consulting positions in the financial sector. Born in Washington, DC, she was raised in Maryland and New Orleans and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in education from Louisiana State University. Peggy and her husband, Allen, live in southwest Florida, and she has two stepsons, Casey and Jeep, and a grandson Carter.

Tweets by @EmilyPostInst